

Primary

What do the Scriptures Say?

“How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of the messenger who announces peace, who brings good news.”

Isaiah 52: 7. (NRSV)

Questions:

Who would think the feet of the messenger are beautiful if the messenger is announcing peace?

Why do you think peace is good news?

Who would Isaiah say this to if he was talking today?

How would you share this message today?

How do you live peacefully?

Primary

What do the Scriptures Say? continued...

What is the good news message for the children in Myanmar?

How can you be part of that message?

Why are messages shared from the mountains so often in the scriptures?

For further “mountain” scripture references please refer to the “Pray” section of these resources: www.cm.org.au/WMM2018/pray.html